Prior to 2004, the Atelier National and International editions were special editions created using a continuous tone printing process. Each canvas Atelier edition is hand-highlighted and designated with the letters AN or AI following the print number.

For releases issued in January, 2003 or later, the Atelier National references images produced using a continuous tone printing process in the monumental size only.

Master Edition (ME)

This rare and unique canvas edition is available through Thomas Kinkade Signature Gold and Corporate Galleries only. Master Editions are exclusive and, as of 1998, only 1/1 in the size released. Extensively hand-highlighted by the artist himself, each Master Edition is hand-numbered and designated with the letters M/E. In addition, enhancing the exclusivity and authenticity of the Master Edition is the personal touch of the artist's unique thumbprint, a Master Edition seal, a metallic plate identifying it as a Master Edition, a unique and detailed pencil remarque created by the artist himself, and the artist's hand-signature on the verso side. The Master Edition is created with a textured brushstroke process that recreates the artist's actual brushwork and is the ultimate expression of detail, artist involvement, and collectibility of any edition issued by the Publisher.

Each and every Thomas Kinkade Limited Edition image published by The Thomas Kinkade Company is numbered and is accompanied by a Certificate of Authenticity. All information is correct at the time of printing.
